I see things more clearly in the moon's mellow light
My mind becomes clearer, my worries resolve
As the paths I will take slowly unfold.

CALIOPE

You're lost in the music as you dance in the ring
The rhythm takes over and you forget everything
The world swirls around you in a way you've not seen
As you dance and you play your fine tambourine
Others around you look on in delight
Enjoying the moment of this beautiful sight.

TESSA AND BLUEBELL

Hello dear Tessa, I love these sweet flights
As we soar through the sky and swoop from the heights
It's such a joy to have you with me
As together we savour the sights that we see
No one else seems to see the things that we do
It must be the magic that lives inside you.

NIANNE AND MOONMOTH

I dance with the Moonmoth all night long
Listening to the whisper of her soft sweet song
You can be anything you want to be
When you do the Moonmoth waltz with me
Swoop, flutter, dip with the breeze we sway
Til the moon doth leave afore the break of day
Taking the moth on its silvery beams
Soft song fading with the night of dreams
Dance Moonmoth wherever you may go
For you are the Queen of the night you know

TITI AND KATYPILLAR

Are you ready, are you set?
This is gonna be the best ride yet
Up we'll go
and down again,
pitter, patter forward
and loop up tight,
bach feet scramblin'
to make it right
So hold on now
and get in the groove,
this Katypillar ride
is on the move!

TILLY AND SMOKEY

I'll catch old Smokey and we'll have a wild ride
As I grab his whiskers and hop on from the side
I'll have to be careful not to ruffle his fur
But it's midsummers eve and time for a stir!
Then off we'll cavort on a wild reckless spree
Mistress exclaiming, "I don't believe what I see."
As we bounce off the walls and scatter the rugs
I'm off as she holds him, consoles him with hugs
She saw me this time, no ifs and no buts
Now she knows why old Smokey goes nuts!

BLOSSOM

I dance in the treetops all day long
Tending my blossoms and singing my song
You'll hear my free tune as I make my way
From branch to branch as they gently sway
You'll search for me high and you'll search for me low
But the only sign of my presence you'll know
Will be the petals I scatter in your path
And the haunting melody of my tinkling laugh
As the blossoms fall like a drift of pink snow
Enchantment following wherever I go.

SHEBA AND SHINY

Come on Shiny let's set the pace
We don't want the others to win this race
My magic whisks will set us apart
From all the others who scuttle, scurry and dart.

MARAH AND FLUTTER

Off we go on our fluttering ride
Look at that beetle trying to hide
The fact that his rider has magic whisks
I'm sure we'll outsmart him once we hit the mists.

DANAI AND HOPPER

OK Hopper, my fine green friend
I'm ready to go to the fields I must tend
So away let us go with a huge springing hop
From twig, to branch, to the great sunflower top
From there we will survey the field so we may Discover the chores we must see to today.

NURI AND CRICKETTE

I've perched as high on your shoulders as asked
So you'll have enough room to perform your great task
You lift your hind legs and bring them to meet
And from this fine instrument you'll find the right beat
Sweet music will soar forth and fill the night air
Sending our message to those who will care.

HERA AND HORNETTE
Fly Hornette, away in the sky
This weird buzzing flight I just had to try
Of course I can fly by myself as you know
But we Faeries catch rides wherever we go
On beetles and bugs and the sweet bumble bee
It saves wear and tear on our wings don't you see
But more than that it's the utter delight,
The excitement of catching a thrilling new flight.

BUNNY AND SPOT

Darn little pixies up they crept
And took advantage while you slept
Painted your spots and made them pink
Left you feeling quite frazzled I think You're right you know, I don't think they'll fade
Pixie paint is very well made
Don't worry my pet your spots are just fine
They match really well with these wings of mine
Together we'll make a great little team
Those pixies will wish they'd never been seen.
